"KVARNER FAMILY – PET FRIENDLY"

Visitors – pet owners must ensure that:

- the pet must be constantly supervised by the owner
- the pet must not be left alone in the accommodation facility
- when taken out, dogs must be kept on a leash
- pet owners must take with them: food bowls, baskets, cages, terrariums and similar equipment to accommodate pets as well as blankets on which pets rest
- pet owners are fully responsible for any damage caused by their pets
- pet owners must immediately report any damage or pollution caused by their pets
- a purebred service dog must have a pedigree
- when booking, pet owners must inform their hosts about the dog breed
- some breeds of dogs require a written inquiry and consent by the host; if the owner fails to send a written inquiry, the host may refuse the accommodation for the dog and charge its owner for one overnight stay.

This refers to the following breeds:

Hungarian Komondor, Anatolian Shepherd Dog (Karabash), Šarplaninac (Illyrian Sheepdog), Bouvier des Ardennes, Portuguese Cao da Serra de Aires (Portuguese Shepherd Dog), Black Great Dane, Italian Mastiff, Dogue de Bordeaux, English Mastiff, Bullmastifs, Rottweiler, Doberman Pinscher, Spanish Mastiff, Tibetan Mastiff, Bull Terrier, Staffordshire Bull Terrier, Imaal Terrier, German Hunt Terrier, American Staffordshire Terrier, Fila Brasileiro (Brazilian Mastiff), Small Dutch Waterfowl Dog.

The mentioned breeds with regular pedigree can be accommodated upon written consent by the host. It is recommended to find accommodation in houses and villas where the dogs cannot come into contact with other dogs and people who are not related to the family of the owner.

- Hunting dogs accompanied by their hunter-owners hunters must be placed in special boxes and can enter the accommodation facility only with the permission of the host
- Dogs, cats and ferrets can move freely inside the accommodation facility when supervised by the owner; all other pets (see definition of pets in the Republic of Croatia), must be in their cages, terrariums etc. during their entire stay.
- The accommodation for pets is charged according to the price list
